A natural surface finish: crafted to engage

Furniture Linoleum is more than a finishing material - it is a tactile experience, chosen by those who value both aesthetic and function. Durable yet refined, Furniture Linoleum is a thoughtful choice when you are after timeless design. It is a material that doesn't demand attention but rewards with a natural elegance that ages beautifully, merging sustainability with subtle sophistication.

HONESTY AND AESTHETICS

Made from natural raw materials like linseed oil, wood flour and pine rosin, Furniture Linoleum embodies a material honesty that suits a wide variety of design aesthetics.

Whether complementing with warm woods or cool stones, its thoughtfully curated palette of contemporary tones blends seamlessly into modern spaces. Suitable for a wide range of applications, from kitchens to furniture and from cabinetry to doors and accessories.

Its subtle matte finish invites touch, offering a quiet sophistication that elevates any interior. Warm to touch but resistant to fingerprints, it effortlessly maintains a clean, pristine appearance.

VISUALLY ATTRACTIVE

- Soft and elegant matt surface finish with an inviting feel
- A balanced range of muted and contemporary colours
- Versatile aesthetic: complements other natural materials such as wood and stone

MATERIAL INTEGRITY

- Made with 94% natural raw materials
- Climate positive from cradle to gate without offsetting
- Authentic material with a unique look and feel

FUNCTIONAL SOPHISTICATION

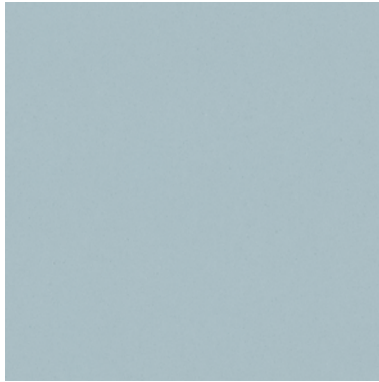

- Durability: strong and resilient
- Low maintenance: resistant to fingerprints and easy to clean
- Comfortable and inviting touch with its warm and tactile surface
